

Mistakes Help Me Learn

A social story for Kairav — Learning that making mistakes is normal and okay, and how to handle frustration when things go wrong

1

I am doing my homework with Gigi. We write our answers carefully.

2

Gigi's answer was wrong. She feels hot and frustrated. That is okay.

3

I press 'help' on my Avaz. Milo comes to help us.

4

Milo gives us an eraser. We can try again. Wrong answers are okay.

5

Mistakes help my brain learn. I am proud when I try again.
