

My Happy Holi

A social story for Kairav — celebrating Holi festival in a calm, sensory-friendly way

1

Today is Holi. Holi is the color festival.

2

People throw color and water everywhere. It feels very loud and busy.

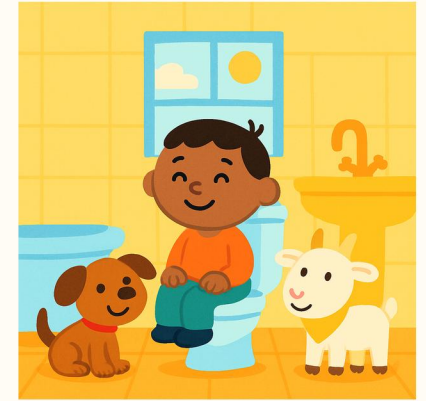

3

Gigi says dry color only. No face. Just our small family.

4

I can put one color on my hands. I can dance with my friends.

5

Now I have a bath at home. I am clean and happy.
