

Waiting For My Turn

A social story for Kairav — Learning to wait patiently during group games and knowing when it's my turn

1

I play games with Bruno and Henny. We take turns.

2

Bruno goes first. I watch and wait. That feels okay.

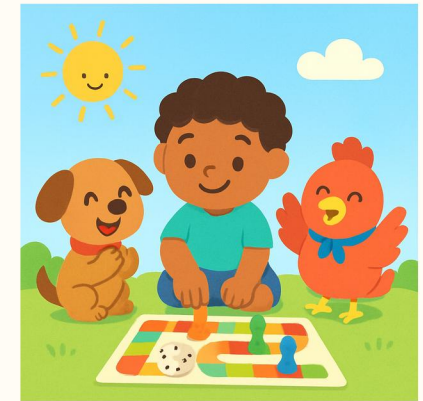

3

Now Henny's turn. I count: one, two. I wait more.

4

Count three! Now me! I pick up the dice.

5

I roll the dice. I move my piece. Waiting helped me play.
